The Month of Joy

December is a month of joyful celebration culminating in a day commemorating the birth of a child who brings hope to people throughout the world. We sing “Joy to the World” and “Go, Tell It on the Mountain” proclaiming happiness that Jesus was born.

December is the month of gathering together to do this. We deck the halls, adorn a tree with lights and baubles, watch little children dressed as angels sing “Away in a Manger” and we feast on food made with love as one of the ingredients.

As the month marches towards the big day, we can become exhausted and over stimulated. A bit of bah humbug creeps into our vocabulary. A bit of sadness pays a visit as we remember those who won’t be at the table sharing the feast.

It’s life after all. We feel joy and excitement mixed in with stress, sadness and loneliness. We are human just as the baby Jesus was.

Let’s remember the reason for the season as they say. A child was born so that the world may know joy and everlasting peace.

In a world that at times can feel far from peaceful, look for joy in the act of gathering whether it’s in large numbers or one on one. Share joy by coming together to break bread, toast the season and exchange gifts. And a gift can be as simple as taking time to have a conversation with a stranger in a store or a loved one far away unable to gather with you.

Joy to the world! The Lord is come;

Let earth receive her King;

Fruit Cake

Saturday, December 27 is Fruit Cake Day. It is believed Egyptians created the first fruit cakes. Their version featured honey, figs and nuts all believed to be gifts from the gods.

Do not confuse Fruit Cake Day with Fruit Cake Toss Day, that's on January 3. Can you imagine tossing perfectly good fruit cake? Store bought fruit cakes tend to be on the dry side giving fruit cakes in general a bad reputation. Perhaps they are the reason for the toss?

A good homemade fruit cake is a thing of wonder. Especially if it is tailor-made to the liking of the recipient also known as one spoiled little sister. Yes, I'm treated to a homemade fruit cake with ingredients I prefer like raisins and dates and nuts, not that candied fruit peel icky stuff I don't like. And, don't get me started on green cherries! My special fruit cake is soaked in enough rum that you can light the baby on fire in celebration of the season.

Picture yourself walking home from a Christmas party. You become disoriented in the snow and dark. But, you have a tin of fruit cake! Food for sustenance and a light to guide you along the way. Fruit cake to the rescue.

Christmas & Carols

Joy To The World!

Joy to the world;
the Lord is come!
Let earth receive her King!
Let ev'ry heart prepare Him room,
And heaven and nature sing
And heaven and nature sing
And heaven, and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ
While fields and floods,
Rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat the sounding joy
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.

No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground
He comes to make His blessings flow
Far as the curse is found
Far as the curse is found
Far as, far as the curse is found.

He rules the world with truth and grace
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness
And wonders of His love
And wonders of His love
And wonders, wonders of His love.

Silent Night

Silent night, holy night
All is calm, all is bright
Round yon virgin mother and child
Holy infant so tender and mild
Sleep in heavenly peace
Sleep in heavenly peace

Silent night, holy night
Shepherds quake at the sight
Glories stream from heaven afar
Heavenly hosts sing hallelujah
Christ the Saviour is born
Christ the Saviour is born

Silent night, holy night
Son of God
Love's pure light
Radiant beams from Thy holy face
With the dawn of redeeming grace
Jesus Lord at thy birth
Jesus Lord at thy birth

Away In A Manger

Away in a manger,
No crib for a bed,
The little Lord Jesus
Laid down His sweet head.
The stars in the night sky
Looked down where He lay,
The little Lord Jesus asleep on the hay.

The cattle are lowing
The Baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus,
No crying He makes.
I love Thee, Lord Jesus,
Look down from the sky,
And stay by my cradle 'til morning is nigh.

Be near me, Lord Jesus,
I ask Thee to stay
Close by me forever, and love me I pray.
Bless all the dear children
In Thy tender care,
And take us to heaven
To live with Thee there.

We Wish You A Merry Christmas

We wish you a Merry Christmas,
We wish you a Merry Christmas,
We wish you a Merry Christmas,
And a Happy New Year!

Good tidings to you, wherever you are;
Good tidings for Christmas
And a Happy New Year!

Oh, bring us a figgy pudding;
Oh, bring us a figgy pudding;
Oh, bring us a figgy pudding;
And a cup of good cheer.

We won't go until we get some;
We won't go until we get some;
We won't go until we get some;
So bring some right here.

A Saskatchewan Winter

With six months of winter to look forward to, it never hurts to remind ourselves of the rules before getting out on the snow and ice.

Check out SGI's "Snowmobiling in Saskatchewan Handbook".

Review the Government of Saskatchewan's Snowmobile Act and Ice Fishing regulations under the Fisheries Act.

Visit Sask Parks or Cross Country Saskatchewan foundation for information on cross country skiing in the province.

Make a winter survival kit for your car.

Be winter safe and have fun.

What makes a community?

Whether you seek fellowship over a cup of coffee, a deck of cards, a sewing machine or a church pew, join with others to pass the time.

Interaction impacts our physical and mental well-being for the good.

Do you like to exercise by walking, but you're not sure about doing it on winter streets? The Archerwill Centennial Centre will be open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. for walking during the winter months.

Holiday Scams: Worse Than a Lump of Coal

The Christmas season is a prime time for fraud. During the festive rush, shopping surges and people are distracted.

So many retailers push Black Friday and Cyber Monday sales with hot deals and limited-time offers. Scammers piggyback on this urgency to exploit the hustle and bustle of the season, pushing you to act before you can notice the red flags.

Common Holiday Scams

- Fake online stores or counterfeit merchandise.
- Phishing emails and texts posing as banks, telecom providers, or shipping companies, asking for personal or financial details.
- Impersonation scams where fraudsters claim to be family or friends in need.

With the rise of AI, even low-skill criminals with a little know-how can manipulate shoppers with convincing ads. Security experts warn that you should be careful on social media sites and even on what comes up on Google. Malicious or fraudulent ads litter the search engine results, so online shoppers should instead go directly to trusted websites rather than searching for items on a search engine or on social media marketplaces.

How to Protect Yourself

- Pause and assess: If an offer seems too good or overly urgent, think twice.
- Verify sources: Contact companies using official numbers and visit websites directly instead of clicking email links.
- Double-check identities: If someone claims to be a friend under suspicious circumstances, confirm through another channel.
- Guard your data: Use social media privacy settings and never share passwords or personal details impulsively.

Scammers constantly evolve, but staying calm and giving yourself time to think helps you spot recurring tricks and avoid costly mistakes.

And remember - Cornerstone Credit Union will never ask for personal information via email or text, or request you to click a link to verify details.

Report suspicious messages to our Contact Centre at 1-855-875-2255, or visit a branch for help.

The Blank Page

"This is my wish for you: peace of mind, prosperity through the year, happiness that multiplies, health for you and yours, fun around every corner, energy to chase your dreams, joy to fill your holidays!"

- David Dellinger 1915-2004

In our fast paced world, a monthly printed newsletter may seem archaic, but remember it is also posted on the library's Facebook page and on the www.villageofarcherwill.com website for you to access easily.

While tactile books can be borrowed from the library, so can electronic versions for your devices. You decide which works best for you.

Thank you to everyone that has been stopping by the library and offering me words of support and encouragement. I'm loving the interaction and feedback.

Have a joyous Christmas Archerwill and a Happy New Year to us all.

Archerwill Public Library

The library is pleased to be putting on Kids' Activities at Archerwill's Santa Claus Day Saturday, December 13 from 12:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Complete each activity/game and you'll earn tickets to be entered into bucket draws for prizes! To earn more tickets, do the activities as many times as you want.

Here are a few examples:

Pin the Nose on Rudolph: The closer you get to where his nose should be, the more tickets you'll earn.

Gingerbread Putt Putt: The more golf balls you put into the gingerbread house, the more tickets you'll earn.

Make a decoration for the hall

Christmas tree (or to take home) and you will earn tickets.

Tell a Dad joke (provided for you) or sing a Christmas carol to the crowd, earn a lot of tickets! Your bravery will be rewarded.

Wear an Ugly Christmas sweater or other Christmas clothing, earn a ticket. You get the idea.

There will be a Cash Canteen, a Christmas Bake Sale and Goody Bags. We hope to see the whole family there!

Fundraising

December is a great month to check out the Used Books for sale at the library. Come pick out a bunch and make a donation of your choice. A used book would be an inexpensive and excellent stocking stuffer for the reader in your family.

Denise Cox's donated greeting cards are on display so come check them out also. Cards without envelopes are $1 each, with envelopes one for $2 or three for $5. The Christmas cards without envelopes could work great as gift tags on presents!

A Message from your Library Board

The Archerwill Public Library Board (APL) is seeking more members. It is currently served by representatives from the RM of Barrier Valley #397, the Village of Archerwill and four other community members.

As with all boards, the APL Board occasionally finds itself unable to reach quorum for a meeting because all members may not be able to attend. That's why it is important to have a few more people willing to take a chair at the table and help out.

The Board meets approximately four times per year. It provides support to the library staff. It makes decisions based on wanting the best for the community and surrounding service area. The Board wants to ensure Archerwill's little library continues to serve us all.

If you have attended any library events, you have probably seen board members helping out by sitting at a market table to sell used books or flipping burgers at a fundraiser.

These are not taxing duties and only occur a few times per year just like the board meetings. More hands make light work. Please consider giving a little of your time to serve your community and your library by being a board member.

Your board members are Marlene Carlson (Chairperson), Linda Conarro (Treasurer), Steven Christianson, Sherrill Barker, Kellie Maslin and newest member Meagan Etsell.

They wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year along with staff members Karen Anderson, Audrey Hnetka and Michelle Verhaeghe.

The Next Chapter is published as a community service by the Archerwill Branch of Wapiti Regional Library.
